BLAINE ON THE CURRENCY.

An Able Speech by the Distinguished Senator in Burlington, Iowa.

BURLINGTON, Iowa, October 1.—One of the largest political gatherings ever held in this State assembled here to-day to hear a speech by Senator Blaine. He spoke for two hours, devoting himself exclusively to the financial issues of the day. Following is a synopsis of his speech:

"We have," said Mr. Blaine in conclusion, "nearly $700,000,000 of paper money in circulation, and the entire volume has already reached a practical equality with coin—the difference being only the minor fraction of a cent on the dollar. No man in this vast audience—and there are many here who were the pioneers of your young State—no man among you all ever saw paper money in Iowa, since it was first organized as a Territory, float as near to the standard of gold coin as this whole mass of $700,000,000 floats to-day, and if this is not enough to do the business of the country, you have only to wait and see silver by tens of millions and gold by hundreds of millions added to the daily circulating medium of the people. Under these circumstances, with a paper currency capable of enlargement through the system of free banking as far and as fast as the demands of the most expansive trade may require, we meet a proposition from a new political party to debase our paper currency and drive gold and silver first out of circulation, and then out of the country, leaving us only to use irredeemable paper currency whose value would depreciate on a ratio threefold as rapid as the volume increased. Measures to debase the coin have been carried in other countries, but never without dishonor and disaster, and it is reserved for this country in a time of profound peace to discuss measures looking to the permanent expulsion of coin from the country, and thence to the lasting and hopeless debasement of our paper currency and the consequent destruction of all stability in all our business. The question is one which reaches the door-sill and hearthstone of every home and home in the land, and the discussion must go on until a safe conclusion is reached, remembering always that nothing is ever settled until it is settled right."

Enormous Bank Failure.

LONDON, October 2.—The city of Glasgow bank closed its doors to-day. Its liabilities are stated to be $50,000,000. The liability of the shareholders is unlimited. One hundred, pound shares of the bank were selling yesterday at over $200, and within the week at $237. The bank was established in 1837, and had from fifty to sixty branches. This is the heaviest bank failure in Scotland since 1837, when this concern also suspended. Other Scotch banks were appealed to for assistance, but after examining the books at a meeting yesterday they refused to do more than redeem the note circulation of the City of Glasgow bank, which is stated at $750,000. The failure has caused great excitement throughout Scotland and in the London stock exchange, where there was a heavy fall in Scotch railroad securities in consequence of pressure of Scotch holders to sell. The failure of the bank is generally attributed to its resources being locked up in bills, shares and detentions of various kinds that were not readily convertible.

The Echo says: "The failure is very important, not less than national disaster, but as usual in such cases, it has been fore-shadowed by innumerable occurrences, and it is hardly likely it will do more than bring down the commercial firms which are involved in the bill transactions which have overwhelmed the bank."

Jeffrey-Lewis' Plans.

New York, October 3.—The Tribune this morning has the following: Among the passengers on the steam ship Greece, which sailed for London yesterday, was Mrs. Maitland, formerly Miss Jeffrey-Lewis, actress. Mrs. Maitland's departure for Europe was a great surprise to her friends and former professional associates in this city. Some of her friends say this action is in view of the financial troubles of Maitland, the broker, whom she recently married in San Francisco. She has gone to Europe for the purpose of resuming her professional life. Previous to her marriage she had accepted several engagements to act in Paris and London, which she cancelled on account of that event.

The Lowther Murder Trial.

FAIRFIELD, Solano Co., Cal., October 3.—In the case of James Lowther, charged with the murder, at Rio Vista, of John Thompson, who seduced him (Lowther's) sister, the jury failed to agree after being out twenty hours, standing ten for conviction and two for acquittal. The jury was discharged, and the defendant admitted to bail in the sum of $10,000.

Gilbert L. Domin, who has been taking care of Leland Stanford's blooded stock, and came to him highly recommended by Governor Rutherford B. Hayes, of Ohio, has been arrested for forging a check for $3200.

M. McDonnell, a San Francisco "put and call" broker, surrendered himself to the police on the 1st, to answer to charges of embezzlement preferred by some of his customers.

The Vanderbilt Will Case.

New York, Oct. 1.—In the Vanderbilt will case to-day the so-called Mrs. Stoddard, who gave sensational testimony Friday last, was cross-examined. She refused to answer a number of questions touching her character or relationship to men for whom she had kept house. A woman stood up in court and witness admitted that that woman was Mrs. Stoddard. Before recess counsel for William H. Vanderbilt asked the Surrogate to place witness in the custody of an officer during recess to secure her presence. After all the explanations she could give were in counsel said he would ask the court to commit the witness to await the action of the grand jury on a charge of perjury.

Mr. Lord said it was the most monstrous attempt to intimidate a witness that he ever heard of. Judge Black dared the other side, if they believed her perjured, to swear to an affidavit and take out their warrant. This would place her in a position to strike back and make them as responsible as they say she is.

Mr. Lord then said he would be responsible for her appearance after recess, which was satisfactory. Witness, in the course of her examination, testified that she was married to Dr. Stoddard by a magistrate at Kingston. At that time she was not aware that the doctor had a wife living. The papers that would prove her marriage were burned fifteen years ago. She went to the doctor's home at his request and told Mrs. Stoddard that she was a widow. This was three years after the marriage ceremony. The Doctor gave her a wedding ring.

SPECIAL NOTICES.

Don't Forget it. If you are troubled with nervousness, are disheartened, tired of life, fear death or feel out of sorts, as the saying is, you may safely conclude that you have the Dyspepsia or Liver Complaint. The liver is very apt to become torpid at this season of the year, as poisons arising from marshes, stagnant water are more numerous, and are, through inhalation, taken into the blood. Unless the liver is strong and active, and furnishes a supply of fresh and pure blood to drive out the impurities, the above mentioned symptoms surely follow, and if not heeded, end in more terrible diseases and death. White's Liver Pile Cure cures itself the great liver panacea. Its action on the liver is different from any medicine ever compounded. Its cures are truly wonderful. Try it. Price, twenty-five cents and seventy-five cents. For sale by our druggists, Osgood & Son, MAKER. au7 eod

FRIDAY, OCTOBER 4, 1878. THE REPUBLICAN CONGRESSMAN.

It is important that every voter should realize the significance of the coming election. It is customary for the weaker side to cover the real issue of a campaign with dead issues and gain votes through ignorance. There are cases where the side issues are the main questions; where a vote has no real political significance, and where no choice of principles can be made. In the election of 1878, however, the Republican and Democratic parties find an instance which demands the most strenuous exertions for the maintenance of principles. The control of Congress is at stake, and if parties stand upon principle, such control is certainly worth the struggle. With a Democratic Senate, whose members still remember the lost cause with affection, and are now scheming to repair the loss, the people are asked to say whether the House shall be handed over to the men who have not forgotten their defeat. With Confederate war claims all ready for presentation, you are asked to admit the attorneys for such claims. With a record of rebellion in one hand, men who are not yet loyal knock at your gates and ask to be trusted once more. Men you drove away from the seat of government once, now want to rule in place of your friends. There can be no middle ground in this campaign. Either you will vote against the spirit which maintained the Union, or you will uphold it. The election of a Republican Congressman is of more importance than the remainder of the ticket. It means that the people want to see Republican rule continued. That they be maintained. That the policy of the central government is to be determined. That Democratic success means a violent change, and that Republican victory will maintain instead of destroying the good results for which we have paid so dearly. Remember this issue and vote for the right.

EDITORIAL NOTES.

The lawyers and female comrades of the late Cornelius Vanderbilt are now proving the insanity of their lamented friend. They say that his will was not properly made out, and ask that he be voted the premium idiot of this decade. We have thought for some time that Vanderbilt was a little touched, but have refrained from any attempt to influence the cause. Judging now from the people who live on the witness stand and swear to intimacy with the deceased, we have no hesitation in saying that Vanderbilt was unsound; that is, if he ever had anything to do with these people. Every friend which the extinct Commodore bought, is now spitting upon his name and fame simply because he did not make a wise will. If the practice continues we shall cease calling him Commodore. Cuspidore will be more appropriate.

Fred Hart of the Reville swears that he would rather be a toad and feed on the vapors of a basement than fall into the arms of the Democracy. He has pains in the stomach, however, when he sees the Republican party grasped by the throat by a "great moneyed and tyrannical power." Sh—! Freddy, don't take on so, now. You saw both of them grasped in the Legislature of 1877 and not a kick did you make. You're in a bad way, Fred, you have political night sweats, and individual cramps, you don't digest your crow at all, but you must not expect the Republican party to nurse you. Diet is what you need—arrow root and flour will assuage this destructive evacuation of epithets and make another man of you. Be cheerful and courageous for your family's sake, and long after Daggett has gone to Congress, generations yet unborn, will praise your successor to the tripod of the Reville.

Manton Marble has sent to this metropolitan journal "A Secret Chapter of Political History; or, why Sammy Tilden Didn't." Without going into this vicious man's motives, we will merely say that the subject is a little stale. Manton finds lots of fossils in his political studies but they are not new. This last effusion, bears the same relation to our political library as a new tail would to a cat already possessed of the usual number.

The journalistic children of darkness are chuckling over the fall of another bright and shining light from the firmament.

The pious firmament. J. B. Calder of Providence, R. I., is, (or rather was, for now that he has been found out the brethren will doubtless hoist him) a member of the Baptist church, treasurer of a Sunday school and an active member of the Young Men's Christian Association. This exemplary young man was also cashier of the Grocers and Producers' bank. He is in jail now and $100,000 of the bank's money is missing.

It is said that during a recent love feast in Virginia, which had strong Democratic proclivities, a novel proposition was advanced. This was to the effect that all hands should then and there take a drink. The proposition was accepted, the party appointed a spokesman to nominate the poison, and he, realizing the importance of his duty, advanced to the counter and said: "Give us some whiskey and sugar 'as they call it.'" The meeting then adjourned.

The Democratic papers are all anxious to know "what killed the Republican party." There's a mistake here some place for the party is not dead yet. It is very sick, however, and the illness has been brought on by a close look at Democratic rottenness and decay. The Democracy, in the elegant words of Dennis Kearney, is "a festering corpse."

Concerning the political rights and duties of citizens, President Lincoln said: "The working people should be aware of surrendering a political power which they already possess, and which if surrendered will surely be used to close the door of advancement against them, and to fix upon them new disabilities and burdens till all their liberty shall be lost."

Fred Hart swears that Lander shall go against the aggressions of a "moneyed power." We don't know what he means by the assertion, neither does Fred. The declaration and its repetition reminds us of St. Vitus's dances in its most aggravated form.

The Sentinel prints a glowing eulogy upon "our next congressman." The intelligent composer, being an ignorant man, set up Deal when it should have been Daggett.

Come back, Denny. Lave the Aist wid its fayer and bring the sand lot back again. The lecherous bondholders are not dead yet.

A Man for Breakfast.

VALLEJO, Cal., Oct. 3.—A correspondent of the Vallejo Chronicle, writing from Middletown, Lake Co., Cal., gives intelligence of the killing at that place of Chas. Bates, an engineer employed at the Napa Consolidated quicksilver mine by Thos. Dye on the afternoon of the 1st inst. The account represents the affair as a deliberate murder. The two were strangers to each other. They had had an altercation a short time before the shooting but parted. Meeting casually again in front of the Lake County house, Dye immediately and without words pulled his revolver and fired. The ball entered Bates' breast and passed through his body. He lingered for four hours and died. Bates, the deceased, was a native of New York, and 29 years old. What added to the sadness of the tragedy was the fact that he had come to town with his wife to attend the marriage of his sister, and the nuptials had been performed but a few moments before his murder. Dye was under the influence of liquor. He was immediately arrested, and at the time of correspondent's writing was surrounded by a strong guard to protect him from being lynched by the excited inhabitants.

Mollie McCarty Coming.

[Sacramento Bee, Oct. 3.]

It is stated on good authority that the running mare Mollie McCarty is now on the way to Sacramento and will be here in a few days. Rumor says, also, that a race has been arranged between Mollie and Mark L., for a large purse, to take place in this city, and that Lena Dunbar may also enter the contest. This would make a splendid race, and horsemen predict that in event of its taking place the fastest time ever made will be recorded. Mark L. is at present in training with a view to break him of his disinclination to start from the score, and with a good show of success. It is also said that Lottery and a fast filly, owned by Baldwin, will go in the race. If possible Robert Allen will have the race come off on the track in this city about the middle of November, when he proposes to give large purses for three days' racing.

Attempted Murder and Suicide.

LAKEPORT, Cal., Oct. 3.—A man named Gentry, residing near Lower Lake, went last evening to the house of one Boshaw, his father-in-law, shot through the window at his wife, who had separated from him, and left her for dead. He then went to James Tension's and told Mrs. Tension he had killed his wife and was going to kill himself. Shortly afterward, hearing a shot, some neighbors, on search, found Gentry dead, his head cut almost half off by the charge of shot. The woman was also shot in the neck with bird shot, but is not thought to be dangerously wounded. The parties had been married about six weeks.

Scene.—Senator Thurman jumping over a rail fence in Ohio, and, striking rather hard on the other side, exclaiming, "Gracious how that hurt! but I was just in time."

Indian Depredations.

CHICAGO, October 3.—A Times Denver special, giving an account of Indian depredations near Buffalo station, on the Kansas Pacific railroad, and the killing of seventeen persons, says the Indians crossed the Kansas Pacific road on Sunday morning. After killing Col. Lewis in the battle of the 20th, on Beaver creek, they crossed twenty miles south of Monument, struck northwest to the cattle trail on the north fork of the Salmon river, and attacked the herders of Smith & Savage, driving them away and stampeding the cattle. They destroyed the Sheridan postoffice and the ranch of T. Bayless, besides several others in the same vicinity.

Going northwest to Prairie Dog creek, on Sunday, they cleaned out J. L. Peck's store and postoffice, and the ranches of A. Robinson and James Gaumer. On Sofa creek, however, their ravages were worse than before, for they killed every white man they met, seventeen in all, including Ed. Miskell, a well-known cattle man. They also killed many cattle and stole every pony they could find. Late on Monday afternoon a party of pursuing citizens came up with them, and a fight followed in which two Indians were killed. The Indians number 200, well armed and mounted. They are pursued by the military and citizens, the force being now close upon the savages, so that another fight may occur at any moment. It is said that some women fell into the hands of the savages and were terribly maltreated before being killed.

The Great Bank Failure.

LONDON, October 3.—The Times in its financial article this morning, says the city of Glasgow bank had thirty-three branches. It has paid progressively increasing dividends for several years past, until it reached twelve per cent. It would be incorrect to say that the disaster was unexpected; on the contrary, in banking circles it created no surprise, for the bank had been losing credit gradually for ten years past, yet the Scotch bank in London was not in possession of information which showed that the end was actually near, until Tuesday morning. Rumors of the bank being in difficulty had been so often circulated before, within strictly banking circles, that the repetition of them did not excite particular attention on this occasion.

The Aeklen Scandal.

New York, Oct. 3.—A Times New Orleans special on Congressman Aeklen's case says the committee of investigation met to-day in secret session and the members are pledged not to divulge the proceedings, consequently nothing could be obtained of their work or decision. They promise to announce the decision in a day or two. The sessions are secret because some of the first families in the State are affected by the scandal. Public opinion is divided regarding Aeklen's guilt. None believe him guilty of the charges as made, and many hold him to be innocent. The course pursued by the committee, however, augurs unfavorably to him.

The Truth for Once.

Four of the editors of the Memphis Avalanche died of yellow fever within a few weeks, working to the last, but they left one courageous soul to tell the truth after they were gone, and he says:

"We who are here to-day do not feel like mincing phrases or glossing over facts. But we do mean to say, in plain English, that Memphis has one other curse than the plague, and that curse is her rich men of Memphis can beat the world, ancient or modern, and there is not a man standing here to-day, fighting the greatest plague in all history, that will not endorse this sentiment."

Union Con. and Sierra Nevada.

SAN FRANCISCO, Oct. 3.—There has been a rumor on the street that the contest between Sierra Nevada and Union Con. relative to the 200 feet of disputed ground has been or is on a fair way of being compromised. This report is denied by the officers of Union Con., who state that they are satisfied to stand their claim and confident of the result in their favor.

Kearney's Platform.

[Boston Times.]
1. Banishment to hell of all newspaper men.
2. Millions for demagogues, but nothing for the people.
3. Suppression of all honorable industry that gathers and saves a few dollars for a rainy day.
4. Denounce as thieves and robbers all who worthily earn a dollar in stocks and bonds.
5. Nobody to steal or murder, except ourselves.
6. No workmen tolerated but those that don't work.
7. Damn everybody that has earned a dollar and won't give half of it to the first lazy harder he meets.
8. Annihilation of all capital that seeks to foster enterprise, develop resources and elevate the masses.
9. Dispersion of all landholders and confiscation of their property.
10. War upon, and destruction of railroads, and life imprisonment of their stockholders.
11. None but horny-fisted tramps on guard.
12. No reading or writing for candidates for office; these are the refuge of bloated aristocrats.

The Colorado Election.

Nearly complete returns from 21 counties of Colorado give the Republican State and Congressional ticket 2100 majority over the Democrats. The remaining counties will probably increase the majority to 2500. Judge Belford, Republican, for Congress, has carried every county except two of those thus far reported. Hon. Frederick W. Pitkin is elected Governor, and Judge Belford to Congress by over 1500 to 1800 majority. The Legislature is largely Republican, and this effectively squelches Mr. Loveland, Jay Gould's Democratic candidate, for Senator, and insures a Republican Senator from Colorado. The Greenback element drew about evenly from each side, but carried nothing and showed no strength.

Congressional Nominations.

By the Republicans of Nebraska, Hon. E. K. Valentine.
Republicans, Twenty-eighth New York Congressional District, Hon. J. W. Dwight.
Republicans, Fourth Wisconsin Congressional District, Judge L. F. Fresly for Congress.

Republicans, Twenty-first New York District, Richard Crowley.
Republicans, Oneida (N. Y.) District, Cyrus D. Prescott.
Greenbackers, Fifteenth New York District, J. A. Erskon for Congress.
Republicans, Eighteenth New York District, Gen. John Hommond.

MISCELLANEOUS. FELLOWS' Compound Syrup! —OF— HYPOPHOSPHITES.

THIS DISCOVERY

In the result of a series of Scientific Experiments based upon the theory that "for the successful cure of Wasting Diseases, the nervous system must be made vigorous and healthy."
One of the first symptoms of disease affecting either the Liver, Lungs, Heart, Stomach, or Genital Organs, is a loss of nervous power. This is followed by muscular relaxation, weakness, and emaciation of all the organs which depend upon them for health or involuntary muscular action, the weaker suffering first. The inventor, acting upon this idea, that the muscles and nerves depend upon each other for efficient strength and action, and that they must be treated directly in order to speedily and permanently cure diseases of the organs which they control, became convinced, after months of experiment, that no other preparation produced such potent and direct effects upon the nervous system as his Compound Syrup of Hypophosphites.

And except in cases of actual organic loss, that it would restore patients suffering from these maladies. Amongst the diseases overcome by the use of this remedy are the following:—

Chronic Constipation,
Chronic Dyspepsia,
Asthma,
Chronic Bronchitis,
Consumption,
Chronic Diarrhea,
Chronic Laryngitis,
Melancholy,
Nervous Debility.

Debility, resulting from Typhoid and other low fevers, Diphtheritic Prostration, Hysteria, Hypochondria, Nervous Excitability, Marasmus or Wasting of the Muscles, Aphonia or Loss of Voice, Sluggishness of the Liver, Interrupted and Feeble Action of the Heart, Stricture, Catarrhs caused by mucous obstruction of the Lungs and Air Passages leading thereto, and Debility from various causes. Indigestion and habitual Constipation almost always arise from weakness of the muscles and nerves of the stomach and bowels. In such cases, Fello's Compound Syrup of Hypophosphites has proved itself of the greatest service by inducing healthy peristaltic action of the intestines. The evacuations soon become copious and healthy, without producing the effect of purgative medicine. Weakness of the Joints and Muscles, Impurity of the Blood, and Inward Wateryness may be cured by attention to the regular described doses, and by due regard to the habits of life.

FELLOWS' Compound Syrup of Hypophosphites

The power of arresting diseases displayed by this preparation is honorably acknowledged by the medical faculty in every section where it has been introduced, and the large sale is the best guarantee of the estimation in which it is held by the public.
This syrup cures PULMONARY CONSUMPTION in the first and second stages, will give great relief and prolong life in the third. It will cure Asthma, Bronchitis, Laryngitis and Coughs. It will cure all diseases originating from want of MUSCULAR ACTION and NERVOUS FORCE.

Sold by all Druggists.

JOTTINGS.

—Register before October 19th.
 —Refreshment rooms to let in the pavilion. See local.
 —Cold, politics and influenza are the prevailing epidemics of Reno.
 —Red Horse Thompson is an independent candidate for Road Supervisor of Reno district.

—Next Wednesday night a square piano will be raffled at the Wine House. Two dollars per chance.
 —This paper still advertises at rates which have starved many printers and made many merchants wealthy.

—A large collection of oil paintings and chromos are now on exhibition and for sale in Marshall's building.

—Next Monday opens the fair, and on Friday next a grand Republican ratification meeting will be held in Reno.

—Tar-and-feather Jones has departed from Truckee, and his baggage was checked for San Francisco. Alack and alas!

—John P. Richardson has been placed on the Democratic ticket to fill the vacancy caused by Mr. Spenderland's declination.

—There are times when a man has to take sides and speak his mind. We therefore affirm that the GAZETTE job office—however, it may be too early in the campaign.

—Hon. Jonas Seeley, Chairman of the Republican State central committee, has tendered his resignation on said committee, and gone to San Francisco for his health.

—One stallion and three mares, Norman stock, shipped from Illinois by J. T. Logan, passed west to Marysville, Cal., yesterday morning.

—Judge Wright has appointed Mrs. Elizabeth Brown administratrix of the estate of Peleg Brown, deceased. Bonds, $11,000. Her bondsmen are A. H. Manning, John Wright, B. G. Clow and E. Crane.

A Penster.

D. J. Crowley or "Joe Crowley," you can take your choice, is in town. Mr. Crowley is one of the editors of the Truckee Republican and together with Mr. McGlashan, his partner, has improved the tone of the Republican about five hundred per cent. in the last month. Joseph comes down to the city for recreative purposes not unmixed with certain dark and nefarious schemes of the business order, which we shall not make public to-day. The reportorial eye is upon him, however, and we shall not hesitate to rebuke any attempt to incite riot or insurrection. We believe that the people will stand by the GAZETTE in this matter.

October 3-3 times.

Secretary of State.

Jasper Babcock, the able man who is to take Mr. Minors' place in the State Capitol at Carson City was in town last night and attended the grand ball. Mr. Babcock has done a great deal of work for Washoe county by helping the Agricultural Society and has come to be reckoned as one of our citizens. Mr. Babcock will poll a handsome vote in this county at the general election in November.

THE GRAND BALL.

The Event of the Season.

Last evening the citizens of Reno and vicinity turned out in a body and went to the grand ball given in aid of the pavilion fund. The new hall is complete in every respect, and last night it was tastefully decorated with flags, evergreens and flowers. Morris Ash of the committee superintended this share of the work and did it well. Trefry, of the Arlington nurseries, with J. W. Scott, was on hand with bouquets and flowers for the guests, and Prof. Varney excelled himself in his selection of music for the evening. The floor has no superior in the State, and although the room was hardly finished, the decorations, music and elegant toilets of the evening made everyone feel at home.

There were one hundred and seventy-five couples present and the festivities were kept up until 3 A. M. Every body felt at home and that feeling always ensures the success of any social gathering. We had intended to attempt a description of some of the exquisite toilets which the ladies have been fluttering over for the past two weeks, but we shall not do it. In fact we have no recollection of any particular article of dress except that ladies and gentlemen alike, wore smiles and seemed to be supremely happy. The supper prepared by the ladies of the Catholic church was what we had expected. There was an abundance of everything and the price was very reasonable. It may safely be said that the opening of the new pavilion witnessed the most enjoyable social event which Reno ever experienced, and the committee returns thanks to the citizens who contributed so generously towards the success of the occasion.

A Total Wreck.

The residences of the heathen Chinese, otherwise called the "moon-eyed leper," situated on Virginia street, are now in a sorry plight. The stone-hurling hoodlum and the night-wandering tough united in a jamboree night before last, and the first brick business was to knock all the windows out of Chinatown. The work was done by acclamation and finished with neatness and dispatch. One of the feasting heathens informed us that the work was done by "No belly good man. Heap big lock. I guess he like make fire too. He blake my lamp. No pleeceman come."

For the Fair.

McFarland of the Arcadie hotel has been awarded the bar privilege at the race track during fair week. We always like to see visitors to Reno get the worth of their money, and especially during fair week. Everybody knows that McFarland can keep a bar in first-class style, and they know besides that he will do it during fair week if he loses money. Dave stands in with Reno and all of her institutions, and we are glad that he is to have the management of the bar privilege. We hope it may prove profitable, and that all of his patrons will get value received for their money.

Well Done.

Everybody admits that the new pavilion is just what Reno wanted, and consequently everyone is proud of it. The plan of the building, and its prompt completion also, receives deserved commendation. H. H. Beck, superintendent of construction, is to blame for this last part, and candor compels us to state that he has been very faithful in the discharge of his duties. If the citizens of Reno will all go to work now and secure a mammoth exhibition of every home product we shall be inclined to say "well done" once more.

Register Your Names.

Six hundred and ninety-eight names have been enrolled on the great register. Last year the total number registered was 654. Total vote in this precinct 810. Voters have until the 20th instant to register. There have been no transfers as yet. Gentlemen, step to the front, and have your names registered. The election next November is a very important one, and every vote will be polled.

Bids Wanted.

The north room in the lower story and the south room in the upper story of the new pavilion, will be let to the highest bidder as a refreshment room during fair week. Bids will be received for both together or each room separately, up to 12 o'clock on Sunday next. Bids should be addressed to L. L. Crockett and the Trustees reserve the right to reject any or all bids.

A Promising Claim.

James Woodward has discovered a very promising claim two miles north of Reno. An assay from the croppings gave $110 to the ton. A shaft will be started immediately by a company of experienced miners. Jim was tendered a good offer for his claim, but proposes to test the value of his discovery.

Reduction of Fares.

The C. P. R. R. will reduce fare to the State fair one-third the regular price. Time of reduction from the 5th inst. to the 14 inclusive. The reduction on the Y. & T. will be from Virginia and Gold Hill $2.50. Round trip from Carson $2. Way stations half price.

Court Business.

Charles Lewis, Robert McGowan and Emmet Jones have been indicted for grand larceny. The bill against Henry Douglas was ignored and an order made to discharge him and release his bail.

THE WORKINGMEN.

Precinct Nominations—Speeches, Bonfires and a General Jollification.

Yesterday afternoon the nominations made by the Workingmen were discussed from all sides. The sidewalk was lined with men, all eager to hear, and express an opinion upon the latest nominations. "Pretty strong ticket," "Don't amount to much," "Old Beck is a hard horse to curry," "Went outside of the ranks," &c. &c. The general opinion seemed to grant that a hard close fight was to be the result.

In the evening the precinct delegation met at the Reno opera-house according to announcement and organized by electing R. P. M. Greeley Chairman and O. S. Martin Secretary. Under the head of nominations came Justice of the Peace, Constable, School Trustees and Road Supervisor. Robert Leeper was nominated for Justice of Reno township by acclamation.

Orlando Evans was nominated for Constable.

Alvaro Evans, Jacob Stiner and S. N. Copeland being the only nominees for School Trustees were endorsed by acclamation.

For Road Supervisor, Wm. Hamilton was the nominee. This completed the work of the delegation and Mr. Clark, of Franktown, one of the Workingmen's candidates for the Assembly, was called to the rostrum. Mr. Clark is a clear and forcible speaker, and shows more than the average of ability in his views upon good policy and government.

Mr. Clark was applauded heartily, after which three cheers were given for the Workingmen's ticket and the meeting adjourned to the street, where a large bonfire was burning in honor of the convention's work. The workingmen seem to be well satisfied and claim that they will make a sweep in November next. They certainly showed more enthusiasm and spirit than did either of the great parties, over the result of their conventions. Work they are all out now, and the work of choosing begins soon.

Who was the Bouncer.

He was a sad-eyed man, and he leaned his head upon his hand. He sat upon a step-ladder and from time to time, whittled pensively. Here was a local.

"What ails thee, good friend?" asked the reporter.

"I'm one o' them defeated candidates myself," said Sad-eye, "and I wuz just tryin' to figger out how these things happen. Now there wuz Blather come to me before the convention and says: 'Now what you want to do Sad-eye, is to stan' in, an' I'll stan' in with you. I'm honest, myself, and straight as a string, an' I need it,' said Blather. Well I went in and I wuz his'n. Now in figgerin' the proposition I drops on the curious fact that Blather went an' told every derned candidate the same fable, an' Blather wuz nominated. Now I'm gettin' at the point, now you tell me this, I got the grand bounce, didn't I?"

"You were certainly fired" assented the reporter.

"Well, as I said there wuz a grand bounce and I wuz the bounce, now you tell me wuzn't Blather the bounce?" I think he wuz, an' I'll give him the grand gaff in November."

More Obsequies.

Nate Kendall's valuable dog Prince was poisoned night before last, and the funeral took place yesterday. The obsequies were largely attended, by Nate, and everything went off pleasantly. The following verses, printed on a shingle, commemorate his virtues:

My pup is gone and in his grave,
 I've had no comfort since;
 The man who did it was a knave—
 I always called him Prince.

Stranger, tread lightly,
 I'm in for war with sword or pen.
 This murder I'll not mince;
 I can lick the man or tribe of men.

That poisoned my dog Prince,
 Stranger, don't make any noise with your boots.

This beautiful tribute to an extinct dog was penned by the local reporter, who arose from a sick bed, at special request, to perform the work.

Another Doggone.

Johnsen's dog Watch, has been missing for some days and the surrounding country has been scoured in search of him: It is supposed that some Democratic delegate got away with him, and Johnson will give a mortgage on Hagerman's store to anyone who will return any part of the canine.

Later—Louis Walker having been subsidized by Johnson tore up the sidewalk in front of the store and found a well thirty-three feet deep. He started to fall into it, but the aperture was only eight feet wide and he lodged. Courtney's derrick has served the town before.

Later—The watch is found and he is pretty well worn out. He is now undergoing a course of medicine. Johnson thinks that it is hay fever.

Remember Him.

Professor J. W. Varney, a thorough musician and competent teacher, is entitled to the thanks of this community. The quadrille band of eight pieces furnished for the grand ball last evening has never been excelled in this State. Besides this, the generosity of Mr. Varney as to price, made him a voluntary contributor to the pavilion fund. Varney believes in the State fair society and has helped it, we return him the thanks which he deserves, and assure him that our people will remember his generosity as well as the quality of his music.

POLITICAL.

REPUBLICAN PLATFORM.

Adopted at Eureka Sept. 18th.

Resolved, That we reaffirm the principles of, and renew our allegiance to the party which preserved the Union, freed the slaves and maintained the essential doctrine: that this is a nation and not a confederacy bound together with ropes of sand, and that both State and national governments should give ample and complete protection to its citizens, both at home and abroad; that against the assault of traitors and rebels the Republican party has preserved these governments, and the Republic of Nevada now demand that every qualified elector in every State—in every State, South and North, Democratic or Republican, black or white—shall be permitted, undisturbed by force and unswayed by fear, to vote at all elections, at the places prescribed by law, and that every vote so cast shall be honestly counted, and that every person chosen by such votes, to any office shall be freely inducted into it, and effectively supported in the discharge of its duties. That the permanent pacification of the Southern section of the Union, and complete protection of all its citizens, in their civil, political, personal and property rights, is the duty to which the Republican party stands solemnly pledged. In order to redress this pledge, it placed the recent amendments in the Constitution, and upon the righteous basis of said amendments it will go forward in the work of pacification, until peace shall come through right doing, and contentment through justice. That the evident purpose of the Democratic party, if it should come into full power, is to pay hundreds of millions of suspended wages to disloyal men, already pardoned by Congress or awaiting a favorable moment for presentation, makes it doubly important, now that the Senate is soon to pass under Democratic domination, that the House of Representatives to be chosen in the coming election should be under Republican control.

Resolved, That the validity of the presidential term was definitely and finally settled by the forty-fourth Congress, and that the attempt shadowed forth by the Potter resolutions to disturb the title by which President Hayes and Vice-President Wheeler held their seats is revolutionary and dangerous in the extreme, and characteristic as it is of the underlying motives of the rebel Democracy call for our unequalled disapproval and denunciation.

Resolved, That it is the duty of Congress to perfect with all possible expedition such legislation as will secure to the country the benefit of an honest and fair adjustment of freight and fares on all railroads, whose construction is the result of land grants, subsidies, loans and other government aid assistance.

Resolved, That the Republican party favors and demands at the hands of the State Legislature legislation in view of the regulation and equalization of freights and fares on all railroads within this State.

Resolved, That in their shameless disregard of our avowed principles, the Democratic party of this State in their unmistakable purpose to nominate the present incumbent of the gubernatorial office for a third term, have brought upon themselves the deserved distrust, not only of every Republican, but of the more honorable and consistent members of their own party.

Resolved, That we believe in the doctrine of rotation in office, and that no believing we are opposed to the nomination of candidates to office under the State government for a third term.

Resolved, That we hail with joy the reorganization of silver as a step toward our emancipation from the grasp of the corrupt money rings of Europe and America, and we ask Congress to complete the measure of our redemption by according to silver its true and undervalued value.

Resolved, That in the legislation of the forty-fifth Congress, nothing more fully commands our approbation than the efforts of our Senators and Representatives in securing the reorganization of silver and the dual standard in the coinage of the country.

Resolved, That there should be retrenchment in the public service; that men elected to office should be qualified by education, intelligence and business habits to perform the duties of their respective offices, and that the system of deputyships and clerkships at present existing in the interest of State officers should be abolished at once and forever.

Resolved, That public lands are the property of the people, and therefore they should be reserved for actual settlers, aided in their settlement by the Government and protected in their possessions by just laws.

Resolved, That we recognize the wisdom of the framers of our Constitution in providing for the taxation of the proceeds of the mines; that all taxes should be equal and uniform; that the present system of taxation is as just and fair as any that can be devised and should be preserved; that the mining corporations doing business in this State pay no more than their just proportion of taxes, while the railroad property situated within this State pay much less than its just proportion; that no more taxes should be raised any one year than are necessary to defray the actual and necessary expenses of the State during the same period, when economically and honestly administered; that the present rate of assessment of property should be decreased so as to produce only such a sum as is absolutely required to pay the expenses of the State, at the same time having due regard to the surplus of funds already in the treasury.

Resolved, That we refer with pride to the record of the Republican party in Congress, where, in spite of the assaults of a malignant and unscrupulous opposition, not one stain of dishonor rests, and not one act has been brought to light which reflects anything but honor upon the representatives of our organization and its principles.

Resolved, That labor in itself recognizes the Republican party as its exponent; demands emancipation from oppression, and elevation to its proper dignity, a just and equal place with capital, and that both are alike necessary to the well-being of society.

Resolved, That the general government should immediately take such steps as to absolutely stop the further immigration of Asiatics to our country; and that such just and peaceful measures should be adopted as may be appropriate and necessary to induce those already among us to quit our shores at the earliest practical moment.

Resolved, That the Republican party of the State of Nevada enters its most solemn protest and condemnation against any corrupt interference in the politics or legislation of this State, by misused rings or corporations, or the representative of aggressive wealth or capital; that we view with alarm the increasing and unceasing attempts of the moneyed powers of the Pacific States to control the elections and shape the legislation of said States; that the principal and practice are fraught with danger to our Republican form of government, and should be frowned down and resisted by every individual who

POLITICAL.

COUNTY TICKET.

and valid during his official term, that there is no power in any committee, State or county, to revoke them, and that a breach of such pledges is more disgraceful and dishonorable than the violation of any private trust or duty can possibly be.

Resolved, That we recognize property as the product of labor applied to forest, field, furs, minerals, and manufactures. That the wealth of any State or nation is proportionate to the number of its laborers. That States are more or less prosperous according to the wages which its laborers command, and that labor is the product while capital is only the result of such production. Believing that the policy of capital gives luxury to the few while well paid and prosperous labor gives comfort to all. We declare our wish that the interests of labor shall have a governing influence in shaping the affairs of the State, thus bringing the greatest good to the greatest number.

Resolved, That the convention refuses to confer any appointing or elective power whatever upon the county central committee which shall be named by this body. We recognize the right of the people alone to name delegates to all conventions of the party, and we repudiate any other course as a manifest attempt to usurp by committee action rights which belong alike to every Republican.
